AT the risk of tiring our readers by singing the same old song, we must again enter a adopt in withholding the report of the recent Commission to investigate the question of the injury to the trade of this port which has been done or is being done by the Chinese revenue cruisers. It is but another illustration of that desire to get clear of publicity which has so often been shown by the local Government, and which has elicited the above subject: such well-merited protests from the public. From the way in which the executive almost always act in matters of this kind, one would imagine that the Colony was made for officials, and not officials for the Colony. Who is it that following resolutions were manimonally adopted is mainly interested in the question whether the trade of this port is unduly hampered i Is it the Governor or Secretary of State for the Colonies, or is it the merchants in the place? Who are likely, is it thought, to be able to give the best opinion on the merits greivance sustained by the Chinese traders, of the Commission's report, the GOVERNOR whose chief experience has been on the West Coast of Africa, or the Colonial-Secre-TARY whose chief experience has been in the up a memorial addressed to Her Majesty's West Indies, or merchants who have spent perhaps ten, fifteen or wenty years in of the Commission in making such representa-China, and know every inch of the ground connected with the China trade? Yet for some reason the Secretary of State for the Colonies will be favoured only with that they would receive a copy of the Report. the Government views of the report, and the Chamber of Commerce must send forward what they have to say in ignorance of what is contained in that report, though their own Chairman was on the Commission, and was especially deputed by the Chamber to sit of adding their experience and information, upon it. The whole affair is such a ridiculous farce that it is almost impossible to keep: serious with regard to it. The Chairman of an application in the name of the Chamber be the Chamber of Commerce, if he has an ordinarily sound mind, will, according to the mission. concurrent opinion of all metaphysicians from Locke to Hamilton, be possessed of the faculty of memory, and, being blessed with this power, can of course frame a momerial upon it embodying all the comment which the Chamber may wish to make in the attention of the proper authorities in respect form of answers to suppositions. It is to this no doubt that he owes his popularity, and the universal confidence reposed in him. It is not likely, therefore, that he will be very wuch pleased by the local Government laying deliberately given such cause of offence to the community as they have in this matter; and he will doubtless call upon the officials here to show very clearly the reasons why a large Diplomatic Question to be referred to him and we presume also to the Foreign Office, should have been made out of THE VARIOUS HOUSE FLAG a matter which as is shown by what was
